Queen's Scout Award and DofE Gold Expedition

Overview

This course is for anyone working towards their Gold Duke of Edinburgh's Award Expedition and/or their Queen's Scout Award Expedition.

During the course you can either complete all the expedition section training including the final practice expedition or prepare for and undertake the assessed expedition.

Programme

If you are attending for training we will cover all required aspects of the expedition section. You will also plan and prepare for your final practice expedition and undertake the expedition at the end of the week.

If you are attending for assessment you will plan and prepare for your assessed expedition. This will include route planning, preparation of a menu and purchase of food. You will also undertake a four day expedition at the end of the week followed by an opportunity to complete your presentation.

Experience required

You must be registered for the Gold Duke of Edinburgh's Award and/or the Queen's Scout Award.

No previous experience is required to attend training.

If you are attending for assessment you must have completed all aspects of training for the expedition and this must be recorded on eDofE and/or in your Queen's Scout Award Logbook.
